FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Blacks Creek Little Bone Collector 1.5 All-In-One Pack

COLUMBUS, Georgia, July 7, 2008 – Realtree Inc.

Black Creeks Little Bone Collector 1.5 -- Part of Blacks Creek new Collector Series, the feature-rich Little Bone Collector 1.5 is a practical all-in-one pack designed with the everyday hunter in mind. At 2,100 cubic inches, this 5-pocket daypack is well suited for those in pursuit of whitetails and/or western big game.

The 22"H X 12" W X 8"D pack is loaded with exceptional features such as a rigid high-tech internal H-frame for unmatched support, Hydration Bladder compatibility and a dependable rain fly. Other features include pliable molded foam backing with breathable air mesh covering and a built-in bow holder. The Bone Collector 1.5 is constructed to last with reinforced seams and bar tacks at all high-stress locations.

Complimenting the pack's rock-solid design and features, Blacks Creek Guide Gear incorporated the W-SAT System (Waist Shoulder Adjustment Track), a fully adjustable torso (XS-XL), and comfort-fit jelly in the straps for a fit that's unrivaled. Each pack in the Collector Series is constructed with durable, waterproof 3-layer Tricot material Available in Realtree AP HD[®].
